

Dual CCT ICM Teaching

Session 5, Season 2: ALL DAY

30th September 2011 –PGEC QMC

Major Haemorrhage

0900 Start

1. A major haemorrhage case with physiology background to bleeding (Dale 30 mins)
2. Compare and contrast the role of aFVII and tranexamic acid in major haemorrhage (20 mins)
3. Explain ROTEM and TEG so that we can remember and use it in practice (20 mins)
4. Military haemorrhage – life at the bleeding edge (20 mins – Tim Scott)
5. What is the role of interventional radiology in major haemorrhage (20 mins) Liaise with Dr O'Neal.

Lunch

Respiratory 2

1330

- 1. Outline the predictors of weaning success (20mins)
- 2. Critically evaluate the role of tracheostomy in adult critical care
- 3. Outline and appraise possible weaning strategies that could be used to wean a COPD patient from invasive ventilation. (20mins)
- 4. Oxygen induced hypercapnia in COPD patients – does it really exist? (20mins)
Dale
- 5. Outline the role of NIV in adult critical care (20mins)
- 6. What is the mortality and morbidity in ventilated COPD patients? (20mins)